

1 sidebars usually have bulleted progress list. This one is just blank

4 CONFIGURATION needs to be a little more celebrated with an icon perhaps Fedora 21 should have been more celebrated. Font size is small ... are we small?

4 FEDORA 21 INSTALLATION PRE-RELEASE / TESTING

2 USER SETTINGS Title Cased letters look more appealing for this kind of headings

5 this icon could use an upgrade

3 nice icons. The could be nicer. Something that matches the context of the fedora-next logos. Perhaps a little rounded at the edges

USER CREATION User dofa will be created

6 this blue overlay highlights space -- wasted space

WHAT IS THIS SPACE FOR?

ever wondered why we have this amount of redundant space here?

nd coo

7 Installing software 49% This no longer matches the default desktop theme. Progress bars are now thin/narrow and cool. This one? Nah

This banner is desperately in need of free space. Its hiding under here and it looks miserably out of place. This banner should be themed accordingly
